

Port of Yarmouth's Privacy Policy

Port of Yarmouth has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy.

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our Web site. Your IP address is used to help identify you and gather broad demographic information in order to better meet your web information needs. Demographic and profile data is also collected at our site. We use this data to tailor the visitor's experience at our site, showing them content that we think they may be interested in, and displaying the content according to their preferences.

This site contains links to other sites. The Port of Yarmouth is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such other Web sites.

Public Forums

This site may link to other sites that contain chat rooms, forums, message boards, and/or news groups available to their users. Please remember that any information that is disclosed in these areas becomes public information and you should exercise caution when deciding to disclose your personal information.

Security

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control.
